Chapter 1 by N8

It wasn't until that day that I first had feelings for a guy. It was weird, it felt. Maybe even unnatural. I was straight, wasn't I. I couldn't even tell anymore. His name was, well, let me just start from the beginning.

Her name was Clara Jennings. She was by far one of the most beautiful women that I had ever met. I had, like, two classes with her. We weren't very close, but we knew each other. At least she knew my name, which is Trevor, by the way. I was infatuated by her. That was, until I felt that I had competition. Clara's best friend, Keith. He had a much larger chance at a relationship, and it killed me.

I wanted to out compete him, until I felt that spark when he bumped into me at the end of the school day.
